FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Latino Network Of Southern Nevada Free Forum Oct. 21

Parents And Students Will Focus On The Power Of Family Engagement In Student Success

The Las Vegas City Council and Ward 3 Councilman Bob Coffin invite parents and all middle school students to the free Oct. 21 Latino Network of Southern Nevada Forum at the Horn Theatre on the College of Southern Nevada North Las Vegas Campus at 3200 E. Cheyenne Ave. Registration and continental breakfast will begin at 8:30 a.m.; the program will last from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The event will encourage families with youth in middle school to become fully engaged with their education. Information and resources from the school district and other community organizations will be offered. The purpose is to inspire students and their families that they have the ability and access to resources needed to be successful in school and in life. The Clark County School District, College of Southern Nevada, Vegas PBS and the city of Las Vegas are collaborating on the event.

"There is no doubt that when parents show daily interest and concern for their children's education and welfare in school, the children do better," said Councilman Coffin. "Problems get solved, priorities get reordered, homework gets done. School success becomes a focus, because its importance is reinforced by mom and dad."

Participants are asked to RSVP at www.latinonetworksnv.com or by calling 702-229-5428. For more information, visit the Latino Network of Southern Nevada website. See the flier.
